

Schissler, Williams

Lieutenant

Class of 1930

K/AC on September 14th, 1938

Lt. Schissler was attached to the Army Air-corp Technical school at Chanute Air Field, Illinois. While flying a training mission he became lost. As his fuel supply dwindled, he attempted an emergency landing in a clover field. The wing of the North America BC -1 came off and he was killed.
