

Crotty, Thomas J. E.

Lieutenant

Class of 1934

KIA on September 30th, 1942

Japanese POW. In Jan. 1942 he was sent to Bataan which fell to the Japanese. He was taken prisoner and then “force marched” some 50 miles. Lt. Crotty died during the march along with 7,000 to 10,000 American and Filipino prisoners. He received the Navy Commendation Medal posthumously.
