

Prince, Donald L.
Lieutenant Commander

Class of 1956

Killed in Aircraft Ops on Dec. 22nd, 1964

LCDR Prince served as the pilot for a rescue mission in response to a report of persons stranded by the flooding of Eel River in Northern California. Lcdr Prince skillfully piloted the aircraft in adverse weather conditions to save the lives of 13 people. While attempting to land the aircraft in extremely challenging conditions, the helicopter crashed, killing all on board.
