

Please find a number of what we feel may be helpful documents all created in "MICROSOFT WORD" to help you in your assignment. These documents are all current as of November 2002. Within each document is all pertinent information available to us at this time. We hope you find this collected information useful in your command.
